

WOULD AMEND TAX ON TOBACCO

SENATOR HITCHCOCK TAKES STEP
LOOKING TO GENUINE DIS-
SOLUTION OF TRUST.

WASHINGTON, D. C. Special. Senator Hitchcock Thursday introduced an amendment to the tariff bill providing for a graduated tax on the output of cigars, cigarettes and pipe tobacco by individual manufacturers.

The amendment is in line with the plan of Attorney General Cummings to remove the protection of the tobacco trust by limiting production.

The action proposed by Senator Hitchcock would permit the production of tobacco at a point where competing companies would be compelled to enter the market in order to supply the demand for cigars and cigarettes.

LOSSES CAUSE HIM TO END HIS

NEW YORK. Special. Worried to the point of insanity over losses sustained in Wall Street during the present slump, Dr. Stephen O. Storck, a thirty-eight-year-old dentist, jumped from a window of his home on the eighth floor of the fashionable apartment hotel Coronet today and killed himself. Mrs. Storck saw her husband jump.

REALTY INCREASES NEARLY HALF MILLION

LYNCHBURG, VA.—Special. Commissioned land has just completed the new assessment for city purposes. It shows a total of $36,117,256. The realty increasing $22,500, and personally $270,756 over last year.

SUFFRAGETTE MAY RECOVER

INJURIES TO DARING SUFFRAGETTE MAY NOT PROVE FATAL AFTER ALL.

LONDON.—Special.—Emily W. Davison, the militant suffragette who was badly hurt yesterday when she tried to break up the running of the Derby on Epsom Downs by grasping the bridle of King George's horse, Anmer, hovered between life and death today, having been unconscious over twenty hours.

Doctors attending the woman said that she showed amazing vitality and that, despite a fractured skull and internal injuries, she might linger for sometime.

The Woman's Social and Political Union, of which the Davison woman is a member, sent flowers and delicacies to the hospital today and engaged a special apartment, special doctors and nurses for her.

Jeckey H. Jones, who was riding Anmer, showed improvement today. Jones said he tried to guide his horse away from the woman when he saw her lunge for the horse's head, but the animal was running so rapidly that it could not swerve from its course.

Jones was sent to his home in New Market today. He will hardly be able to ride again for half a year.

Queen Mary, who witnessed the tragic incident from the royal enclosure, was greatly shocked.

METCALFE, THANKFUL, CALLS AT WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Special.—Richard L. Metcalfe, selected by President Wilson to be civil governor of the Panama Canal Zone, called at the White House Wednesday to thank the President. Metcalfe later left Washington for his home in Lincoln, Neb., to wind up his business affairs so that he will be able to start for the canal zone as soon as his nomination is confirmed.

ME/PHIS, TENN. Special.—Dr. M. Goldman, superintendent of the Memphis Board of Health, today announced that the city would pay no more bounties for the killing of flies. Small boys, he said, had discovered that they could breed flies in great

DR. MULLER WILL VISIT WASHINGTON

ANXIOUS TO OBTAIN MORE LIGHT ON THE COFFEE TRUST OPERATIONS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 5.—Dr. Jaure Muller, Minister of Foreign Affairs of Brazil, will arrive in the United States next week to discuss trade relations between the two countries. His visit was made conditional upon the quashing of the suit against the coffee trust.

There is a disposition among senators interested in determining the facts about the dismissal of the suit against the coffee trust to interrogate Dr. Muller if a method can be found of so doing without violating the rules of courtesy which obtain during the presence in the United States of representatives of foreign governments.

The State Department was informed before the close of the Taft administration that unless this government dismissed its action against the coffee trust, in which Brazil is deeply interested, the trip of Dr. Muller must be indefinitely postponed.

NEGRO ATTACKS VIENNA COUNT

VIENNA, Special.—Count Adalbert Sternberg, a former member of the Reichstag, while seated in a dancing academy Thursday was assaulted by a negro, alleged to have been employed by his political enemies.

The count and the negro engaged in a rough and tumble fight, and the noblesman was getting the better of it when a gang of negroes set upon him and gave him a severe beating. The police interfered and arrested several of the blacks. Count Adalbert alleges a plot.

The count and the negro engaged in a rough and tumble fight, and the noblesman was getting the better of it when a gang of negroes set upon him and gave him a severe beating. The police interfered and arrested several of the blacks. Count Adalbert alleges a plot.

The count and the negro engaged in a rough and tumble fight, and the noblesman was getting the better of it when a gang of negroes set upon him and gave him a severe beating. The police interfered and arrested several of the blacks. Count Adalbert alleges a plot.

MOVE TO DISMISS COX FROM SUIT

CINCINNATI, O. Special.—This afternoon Judge Caldwell, in Common Pleas Court, will rule upon the motion of the defense that he dismiss George B. Cox, ex-political boss and financier, and four other former directors of the Cincinnati Trust Company, who are on trial for the alleged misappropriation of a note for $252,000 given to the bank.

The motion for the dismissal of the case was made late yesterday after the State had finished its submission of evidence. The defense contended that no evidence had been produced to show that the bank was in existence on the date of the alleged cancellation of the unpaid note.

Fugitive Arrested.

BALTIMORE, MD.—Special. Recognized from a description sent out two months ago by the police of Philadelphia, Frank Justice, wanted in that city for violating his parole, was arrested here by headquarters detectives and is locked up at the Central Police Station.

Justice, from Philadelphia. In May, 1911, he was sentenced on a charge of larceny to the Pennsylvania industrial reformatory at Huntingdon. He was paroled in September, 1912.

HIT CONDUCTOR WITH TOY BANK

RICHMOND, VA.—Special.—

Claim Agent Mulford, of the Virginia Railway and Power Company, is looking for the man who last night offered one of his conductors a "toy bank" in payment of fare and then blocked his eye when he refused it.

The man was taken in custody by the police, but through some mistake was released at the station.

Mulford, a passenger on the train, saw the man who offered him a "toy bank" and then blocked his eye when he refused it.

Without warning the man suddenly wheeled on the conductor and struck him in the eye, using the bank for a weapon. The conductor grappled with him, and, assisted by the motorman, finally succeeded in ejecting him from the car.

Two police officers, who happened to be standing at Twenty-fifth and Venable Streets, hurried up and took charge of the prisoner. He was taken to the First Police Station, where a charge of drunkenness appears to have been entered against him.

This morning Mr. Mulford appeared in Police Court to assist in the prosecution. He found that the prisoner, whose identity is not known, had been liberated.

Without warning the man suddenly wheeled on the conductor and struck him in the eye, using the bank for a weapon. The conductor grappled with him, and, assisted by the motorman, finally succeeded in ejecting him from the car.

Two police officers, who happened to be standing at Twenty-fifth and Venable Streets, hurried up and took charge of the prisoner. He was taken to the First Police Station, where a charge of drunkenness appears to have been entered against him.

This morning Mr. Mulford appeared in Police Court to assist in the prosecution. He found that the prisoner, whose identity is not known, had been liberated.

Without warning the man suddenly wheeled on the conductor and struck him in the eye, using the bank for a weapon. The conductor grappled with him, and, assisted by the motorman, finally succeeded in ejecting him from the car.

Two police officers, who happened to be standing at Twenty-fifth and Venable Streets, hurried up and took charge of the prisoner. He was taken to the First Police Station, where a charge of drunkenness appears to have been entered against him.

This morning Mr. Mulford appeared in Police Court to assist in the prosecution. He found that the prisoner, whose identity is not known, had been liberated.

Without warning the man suddenly wheeled on the conductor and struck him in the eye, using the bank for a weapon. The conductor grappled with him, and, assisted by the motorman, finally succeeded in ejecting him from the car.

Two police officers, who happened to be standing at Twenty-fifth and Venable Streets, hurried up and took charge of the prisoner. He was taken to the First Police Station, where a charge of drunkenness appears to have been entered against him.

This morning Mr. Mulford appeared in Police Court to assist in the prosecution. He found that the prisoner, whose identity is not known, had been liberated.

Without warning the man suddenly wheeled on the conductor and struck him in the eye, using the bank for a weapon. The conductor grappled with him, and, assisted by the motorman, finally succeeded in ejecting him from the car.

Two police officers, who happened to be standing at Twenty-fifth and Venable Streets, hurried up and took charge of the prisoner. He was taken to the First Police Station, where a charge of drunkenness appears to have been entered against him.

This morning Mr. Mulford appeared in Police Court to assist in the prosecution. He found that the prisoner, whose identity is not known, had been liberated.

Without warning the man suddenly wheeled on the conductor and struck him in the eye, using the bank for a weapon. The conductor grappled with him, and, assisted by the motorman, finally succeeded in ejecting him from the car.

Two police officers, who happened to be standing at Twenty-fifth and Venable Streets, hurried up and took charge of the prisoner. He was taken to the First Police Station, where a charge of drunkenness appears to have been entered against him.

This morning Mr. Mulford appeared in Police Court to assist in the prosecution. He found that the prisoner, whose identity is not known, had been liberated.

Without warning the man suddenly wheeled on the conductor and struck him in the eye, using the bank for a weapon. The conductor grappled with him, and, assisted by the motorman, finally succeeded in ejecting him from the car.

Two police officers, who happened to be standing at Twenty-fifth and Venable Streets, hurried up and took charge of the prisoner. He was taken to the First Police Station, where a charge of drunkenness appears to have been entered against him.

This morning Mr. Mulford appeared in Police Court to assist in the prosecution. He found that the prisoner, whose identity is not known, had been liberated.

Without warning the man suddenly wheeled on the conductor and struck him in the eye, using the bank for a weapon. The conductor grappled with him, and, assisted by the motorman, finally succeeded in ejecting him from the car.

Two police officers, who happened to be standing at Twenty-fifth and Venable Streets, hurried up and took charge of the prisoner. He was taken to the First Police Station, where a charge of drunkenness appears to have been entered against him.

This morning Mr. Mulford appeared in Police Court to assist in the prosecution. He found that the prisoner, whose identity is not known, had been liberated.

Without warning the man suddenly wheeled on the conductor and struck him in the eye, using the bank for a weapon. The conductor grappled with him, and, assisted by the motorman, finally succeeded in ejecting him from the car.

Two police officers, who happened to be standing at Twenty-fifth and Venable Streets, hurried up and took charge of the prisoner. He was taken to the First Police Station, where a charge of drunkenness appears to have been entered against him.

This morning Mr. Mulford appeared in Police Court to assist in the prosecution. He found that the prisoner, whose identity is not known, had been liberated.

Without warning the man suddenly wheeled on the conductor and struck him in the eye, using the bank for a weapon. The conductor grappled with him, and, assisted by the motorman, finally succeeded in ejecting him from the car.

Two police officers, who happened to be standing at Twenty-fifth and Venable Streets, hurried up and took charge of the prisoner. He was taken to the First Police Station, where a charge of drunkenness appears to have been entered against him.

This morning Mr. Mulford appeared in Police Court to assist in the prosecution. He found that the prisoner, whose identity is not known, had been liberated.

Without warning the man suddenly wheeled on the conductor and struck him in the eye, using the bank for a weapon. The conductor grappled with him, and, assisted by the motorman, finally succeeded in ejecting him from the car.

Two police officers, who happened to be standing at Twenty-fifth and Venable Streets, hurried up and took charge of the prisoner. He was taken to the First Police Station, where a charge of drunkenness appears to have been entered against him.

This morning Mr. Mulford appeared in Police Court to assist in the prosecution. He found that the prisoner, whose identity is not known, had been liberated.

Without warning the man suddenly wheeled on the conductor and struck him in the eye, using the bank for a weapon. The conductor grappled with him, and, assisted by the motorman, finally succeeded in ejecting him from the car.

Two police officers, who happened to be standing at Twenty-fifth and Venable Streets, hurried up and took charge of the prisoner. He was taken to the First Police Station, where a charge of drunkenness appears to have been entered against him.

This morning Mr. Mulford appeared in Police Court to assist in the prosecution. He found that the prisoner, whose identity is not known, had been liberated.

Without warning the man suddenly wheeled on the conductor and struck him in the eye, using the bank for a weapon. The conductor grappled with him, and, assisted by the motorman, finally succeeded in ejecting him from the car.

Two police officers, who happened to be standing at Twenty-fifth and Venable Streets, hurried up and took charge of the prisoner. He was taken to the First Police Station, where a charge of drunkenness appears to have been entered against him.

This morning Mr. Mulford appeared in Police Court to assist in the prosecution. He found that the prisoner, whose identity is not known, had been liberated.

Without warning the man suddenly wheeled on the conductor and struck him in the eye, using the bank for a weapon. The conductor grappled with him, and, assisted by the motorman, finally succeeded in ejecting him from the car.

Two police officers, who happened to be standing at Twenty-fifth and Venable Streets, hurried up and took charge of the prisoner. He was taken to the First Police Station, where a charge of drunkenness appears to have been entered against him.

This morning Mr. Mulford appeared in Police Court to assist in the prosecution. He found that the prisoner, whose identity is not known, had been liberated.

Without warning the man suddenly wheeled on the conductor and struck him in the eye, using the bank for a weapon. The conductor grappled with him, and, assisted by the motorman, finally succeeded in ejecting him from the car.

Two police officers, who happened to be standing at Twenty-fifth and Venable Streets, hurried up and took charge of the prisoner. He was taken to the First Police Station, where a charge of drunkenness appears to have been entered against him.

This morning Mr. Mulford appeared in Police Court to assist in the prosecution. He found that the prisoner, whose identity is not known, had been liberated.

Without warning the man suddenly wheeled on the conductor and struck him in the eye, using the bank for a weapon. The conductor grappled with him, and, assisted by the motorman, finally succeeded in ejecting him from the car.

Two police officers, who happened to be standing at Twenty-fifth and Venable Streets, hurried up and took charge of the prisoner. He was taken to the First Police Station, where a charge of drunkenness appears to have been entered against him.

This morning Mr. Mulford appeared in Police Court to assist in the prosecution. He found that the prisoner, whose identity is not known, had been liberated.

Without warning the man suddenly wheeled on the conductor and struck him in the eye, using the bank for a weapon. The conductor grappled with him, and, assisted by the motorman, finally succeeded in ejecting him from the car.

Two police officers, who happened to be standing at Twenty-fifth and Venable Streets, hurried up and took charge of the prisoner. He was taken to the First Police Station, where a charge of drunkenness appears to have been entered against him.

This morning Mr. Mulford appeared in Police Court to assist in the prosecution. He found that the prisoner, whose identity is not known, had been liberated.

Without warning the man suddenly wheeled on the conductor and struck him in the eye, using the bank for a weapon. The conductor grappled with him, and, assisted by the motorman, finally succeeded in ejecting him from the car.

Two police officers, who happened to be standing at Twenty-fifth and Venable Streets, hurried up and took charge of the prisoner. He was taken to the First Police Station, where a charge of drunkenness appears to have been entered against him.

This morning Mr. Mulford appeared in Police Court to assist in the prosecution. He found that the prisoner, whose identity is not known, had been liberated.

Without warning the man suddenly wheeled on the conductor and struck him in the eye, using the bank for a weapon. The conductor grappled with him, and, assisted by the motorman, finally succeeded in ejecting him from the car.

Two police officers, who happened to be standing at Twenty-fifth and Venable Streets, hurried up and took charge of the prisoner. He was taken to the First Police Station, where a charge of drunkenness appears to have been entered against him.

here as another manifestation of the desire of the Japanese Government to press the issue to a conclusion at an early date. It is understood that Ambassador Chinda made a request for the interview with the President when he presented the note of his government to Secretary Bryan Wednesday afternoon.

Despite the pressure of the Japanese in favor of an early settlement of the situation, it was believed on the White House side that the Japanese Government was not prepared to make a concession of any kind.

As yet, a definite position has not been taken by the Japanese Government. It is understood that the Japanese Government is not prepared to make a concession of any kind.

As yet, a definite position has not been taken by the Japanese Government. It is understood that the Japanese Government is not prepared to make a concession of any kind.

As yet, a definite position has not been taken by the Japanese Government. It is understood that the Japanese Government is not prepared to make a concession of any kind.

As yet, a definite position has not been taken by the Japanese Government. It is understood that the Japanese Government is not prepared to make a concession of any kind.

As yet, a definite position has not been taken by the Japanese Government. It is understood that the Japanese Government is not prepared to make a concession of any kind.

As yet, a definite position has not been taken by the Japanese Government. It is understood that the Japanese Government is not prepared to make a concession of any kind.

As yet, a definite position has not been taken by the Japanese Government. It is understood that the Japanese Government is not prepared to make a concession of any kind.

As yet, a definite position has not been taken by the Japanese Government. It is understood that the Japanese Government is not prepared to make a concession of any kind.

As yet, a definite position has not been taken by the Japanese Government. It is understood that the Japanese Government is not prepared to make a concession of any kind.

As yet, a definite position has not been taken by the Japanese Government. It is understood that the Japanese Government is not prepared to make a concession of any kind.

As yet, a definite position has not been taken by the Japanese Government. It is understood that the Japanese Government is not prepared to make a concession of any kind.

As yet, a definite position has not been taken by the Japanese Government. It is understood that the Japanese Government is not prepared to make a concession of any kind.

As yet, a definite position has not been taken by the Japanese Government. It is understood that the Japanese Government is not prepared to make a concession of any kind.

As yet, a definite position has not been taken by the Japanese Government. It is understood that the Japanese Government is not prepared to make a concession of any kind.

As yet, a definite position has not been taken by the Japanese Government. It is understood that the Japanese Government is not prepared to make a concession of any kind.

As yet, a definite position has not been taken by the Japanese Government. It is understood that the Japanese Government is not prepared to make a concession of any kind.

As yet, a definite position has not been taken by the Japanese Government. It is understood that the Japanese Government is not prepared to make a concession of any kind.

As yet, a definite position has not been taken by the Japanese Government. It is understood that the Japanese Government is not prepared to make a concession of any kind.

As yet, a definite position has not been taken by the Japanese Government. It is understood that the Japanese Government is not prepared to make a concession of any kind.

As yet, a definite position has not been taken by the Japanese Government. It is understood that the Japanese Government is not prepared to make a concession of any kind.

As yet, a definite position has not been taken by the Japanese Government. It is understood that the Japanese Government is not prepared to make a concession of any kind.

As yet, a definite position has not been taken by the Japanese Government. It is understood that the Japanese Government is not prepared to make a concession of any kind.

As yet, a definite position has not been taken by the Japanese Government. It is understood that the Japanese Government is not prepared to make a concession of any kind.

As yet, a definite position has not been taken by the Japanese Government. It is understood that the Japanese Government is not prepared to make a concession of any kind.

As yet, a definite position has not been taken by the Japanese Government. It is understood that the Japanese Government is not prepared to make a concession of any kind.

As yet, a definite position has not been taken by the Japanese Government. It is understood that the Japanese Government is not prepared to make a concession of any kind.

As yet, a definite position has not been taken by the Japanese Government. It is understood that the Japanese Government is not prepared to make a concession of any kind.

As yet, a definite position has not been taken by the Japanese Government. It is understood that the Japanese Government is not prepared to make a concession of any kind.

As yet, a definite position has not been taken by the Japanese Government. It is understood that the Japanese Government is not prepared to make a concession of any kind.

As yet, a definite position has not been taken by the Japanese Government. It is understood that the Japanese Government is not prepared to make a concession of any kind.

As yet, a definite position has not been taken by the Japanese Government. It is understood that the Japanese Government is not prepared to make a concession of any kind.

As yet, a definite position has not been taken by the Japanese Government. It is understood that the Japanese Government is not prepared to make a concession of any kind.

As yet, a definite position has not been taken by the Japanese Government. It is understood that the Japanese Government is not prepared to make a concession of any kind.

As yet, a definite position has not been taken by the Japanese Government. It is understood that the Japanese Government is not prepared to make a concession of any kind.

As yet, a definite position has not been taken by the Japanese Government. It is understood that the Japanese Government is not prepared to make a concession of any kind.

As yet, a definite position has not been taken by the Japanese Government. It is understood that the Japanese Government is not prepared to make a concession of any kind.

MOODOO DAY CAN'T FRIGHTEN THEM

FACT THAT FRIDAY IS DOOMED
UNLOCKS IGNORED BY CROWD.

CHESAPEAKE, VA.—Special.—In defiance of all "gossip" laws, Miss Anna Hutchinson and Ernest H. Young today announced that they would be married on Friday, June 8, 1912. After the wedding ceremony there will be a thirteen-course dinner served promptly at 5:15 P. M.

CHESAPEAKE, VA.—Special.—In defiance of all "gossip" laws, Miss Anna Hutchinson and Ernest H. Young today announced that they would be married on Friday, June 8, 1912. After the wedding ceremony there will be a thirteen-course dinner served promptly at 5:15 P. M.

CHESAPEAKE, VA.—Special.—In defiance of all "gossip" laws, Miss Anna Hutchinson and Ernest H. Young today announced that they would be married on Friday, June 8, 1912. After the wedding ceremony there will be a thirteen-course dinner served promptly at 5:15 P. M.

CHESAPEAKE, VA.—Special.—In defiance of all "gossip" laws, Miss Anna Hutchinson and Ernest H. Young today announced that they would be married on Friday, June 8, 1912. After the wedding ceremony there will be a thirteen-course dinner served promptly at 5:15 P. M.

CHESAPEAKE, VA.—Special.—In defiance of all "gossip" laws, Miss Anna Hutchinson and Ernest H. Young today announced that they would be married on Friday, June 8, 1912. After the wedding ceremony there will be a thirteen-course dinner served promptly at 5:15 P. M.

CHESAPEAKE, VA.—Special.—In defiance of all "gossip" laws, Miss Anna Hutchinson and Ernest H. Young today announced that they would be married on Friday, June 8, 1912. After the wedding ceremony there will be a thirteen-course dinner served promptly at 5:15 P. M.

CHESAPEAKE, VA.—Special.—In defiance of all "gossip" laws, Miss Anna Hutchinson and Ernest H. Young today announced that they would be married on Friday, June 8, 1912. After the wedding ceremony there will be a thirteen-course dinner served promptly at 5:15 P. M.

CHESAPEAKE, VA.—Special.—In defiance of all "gossip" laws, Miss Anna Hutchinson and Ernest H. Young today announced that they would be married on Friday, June 8, 1912. After the wedding ceremony there will be a thirteen-course dinner served promptly at 5:15 P. M.

CHESAPEAKE, VA.—Special.—In defiance of all "gossip" laws, Miss Anna Hutchinson and Ernest H. Young today announced that they would be married on Friday, June 8, 1912. After the wedding ceremony there will be a thirteen-course dinner served promptly at 5:15 P. M.

CHESAPEAKE, VA.—Special.—In defiance of all "gossip" laws, Miss Anna Hutchinson and Ernest H. Young today announced that they would be married on Friday, June 8, 1912. After the wedding ceremony there will be a thirteen-course dinner served promptly at 5:15 P. M.

CHESAPEAKE, VA.—Special.—In defiance of all "gossip" laws, Miss Anna Hutchinson and Ernest H. Young today announced that they would be married on Friday, June 8, 1912. After the wedding ceremony there will be a thirteen-course dinner served promptly at 5:15 P. M.

CHESAPEAKE, VA.—Special.—In defiance of all "gossip" laws, Miss Anna Hutchinson and Ernest H. Young today announced that they would be married on Friday, June 8, 1912. After the wedding ceremony there will be a thirteen-course dinner served promptly at 5:15 P. M.

CHESAPEAKE, VA.—Special.—In defiance of all "gossip" laws, Miss Anna Hutchinson and Ernest H. Young today announced that they would be married on Friday, June 8, 1912. After the wedding ceremony there will be a thirteen-course dinner served promptly at 5:15 P. M.

CHESAPEAKE, VA.—Special.—In defiance of all "gossip" laws, Miss Anna Hutchinson and Ernest H. Young today announced that they would be married on Friday, June 8, 1912. After the wedding ceremony there will be a thirteen-course dinner served promptly at 5:15 P. M.

CHESAPEAKE, VA.—Special.—In defiance of all "gossip" laws, Miss Anna Hutchinson and Ernest H. Young today announced that they would be married on Friday, June 8, 1912. After the wedding ceremony there will be a thirteen-course dinner served promptly at 5:15 P. M.

CHESAPEAKE, VA.—Special.—In defiance of all "gossip" laws, Miss Anna Hutchinson and Ernest H. Young today announced that they would be married on Friday, June 8, 1912. After the wedding ceremony there will be a thirteen-course dinner served promptly at 5:15 P. M.

CHESAPEAKE, VA.—Special.—In defiance of all "gossip" laws, Miss Anna Hutchinson and Ernest H. Young today announced that they would be married on Friday, June 8, 1912. After the wedding ceremony there will be a thirteen-course dinner served promptly at 5:15 P. M.

CHESAPEAKE, VA.—Special.—In defiance of all "gossip" laws, Miss Anna Hutchinson and Ernest H. Young today announced that they would be married on Friday, June 8, 1912. After the wedding ceremony there will be a thirteen-course dinner served promptly at 5:15 P. M.

CHESAPEAKE, VA.—Special.—In defiance of all "gossip" laws, Miss Anna Hutchinson and Ernest H. Young today announced that they would be married on Friday, June 8, 1912. After the wedding ceremony there will be a thirteen-course dinner served promptly at 5:15 P. M.

CHESAPEAKE, VA.—Special.—In defiance of all "gossip" laws, Miss Anna Hutchinson and Ernest H. Young today announced that they would be married on Friday, June 8, 1912. After the wedding ceremony there will be a thirteen-course dinner served promptly at 5:15 P. M.

CHESAPEAKE, VA.—Special.—In defiance of all "gossip" laws, Miss Anna Hutchinson and Ernest H. Young today announced that they would be married on Friday, June 8, 1912. After the wedding ceremony there will be a thirteen-course dinner served promptly at 5:15 P. M.

CHESAPEAKE, VA.—Special.—In defiance of all "gossip" laws, Miss Anna Hutchinson and Ernest H. Young today announced that they would be married on Friday, June 8, 1912. After the wedding ceremony there will be a thirteen-course dinner served promptly at 5:15 P. M.

CHESAPEAKE, VA.—Special.—In defiance of all "gossip" laws, Miss Anna Hutchinson and Ernest H. Young today announced that they would be married on Friday, June 8, 1912. After the wedding ceremony there will be a thirteen-course dinner served promptly at 5:15 P. M.

CHESAPEAKE, VA.—Special.—In defiance of all "gossip" laws, Miss Anna Hutchinson and Ernest H. Young today announced that they would be married on Friday, June 8, 1912. After the wedding ceremony there will be a thirteen-course dinner served promptly at 5:15 P. M.

CHESAPEAKE, VA.—Special.—In defiance of all "gossip" laws, Miss Anna Hutchinson and Ernest H. Young today announced that they would be married on Friday, June 8, 1912. After the wedding ceremony there will be a thirteen-course dinner served promptly at 5:15 P. M.

CHESAPEAKE, VA.—Special.—In defiance of all "gossip" laws, Miss Anna Hutchinson and Ernest H. Young today announced that they would be married on Friday, June 8, 1912. After the wedding ceremony there will be a thirteen-course dinner served promptly at 5:15 P. M.

CHESAPEAKE, VA.—